

A play titled “Bichhu”

Local talent often dies in the world with no recognition. This activity conducted on 3rd December at Ganesh Mandapam Mahori Bag, Unnao was an initiative to recognise and promote local talent in the field of theatre and drama. This play was an adaptation of the famous writer Mauliyar’s play titled “Bichhu”. It was a joint effort of the Government District Library Unnao and Uday Sanskritik Sangathan. The local MLA Mr. Pankaj Gupta was invited to the event as the Chief Guest. In their addresses they brought out the importance of non-conventional careers and jobs that people can do in them tremendously. Apart from Mr. Gupta, there was Mr. Anurag Awasthi, Social Worker and Mr. Premchandra Singh, Principal of the Degree College in Unnao who spoke as special guests.
